When Theatre and Dance Lecturer Shelley Oliver made her way onto the Dorothy Hess Baker stage on April 6, she and the Muhlenberg Jazztap Ensemble were ending their journey through Lehigh Valley schools, educating and inspiring audiences with their entertaining and interactive presentation. The Ensemble was accompanied by The David Leonhardt Trio. Produced by the Department of Theatre and Dance, this family series performance excited hundreds of students, teachers and parents with the live, historic jazztap presentation. Doing it with dance is just one more way Muhlenberg students continue their service to the community.
