JAZZ for KIDS!

with The David Leonhardt Jazz Group

[VISIT: www.davidjazz.com AND www.youtube.com/thinkjazz]

Designed to introduce children (aged 6 to 12 or so) to the world of jazz and creative improvisation, David Leonhardt uses familiar songs to explain what jazz is and how the raw materials of music are used to create unique performances. Audience participation and interaction help make this show fun and informative for kids with all kinds of musical experience or none.

For over 30 years, Pennsylvania pianist and composer David Leonhardt has been a jazz performer and educator with students ranging from 6-year-olds to adult professionals. JAZZ FOR KIDS has been enjoyed by thousands across North America and Europe.

1 p.m., Saturday, February 7, 2009

FREE / no reserved seats / doors open at 12:30 p.m.
